Downtown Torrance Mall Conversion to Be Aired

Interest in the "mall" idea for downtown Torrance is increasing according to President George Naylor of the Downtown Retail Merchants Division of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce. The downtown retail group has scheduled a dinner meeting to discuss the newest and most controversial retail promotion.

Caprino's will be the setting for the Aug. 25 affair which will start at 6:30 p.m.

Robert Tremaine, Manager of the Oxnard Chamber of Commerce will be the guest speaker at the meeting and will present both pros and cons of the project as Oxnard has tried it.

A surprise "twist" to the meeting occurred when it was added that Fred W. Mill, immediate past president of the Chamber, returned from Toledo, Ohio on a business trip and indicated his willingness to attend the merchants meeting to disclose information he received on a business trip to the Ohio city which attracted nationwide interest recently by attempting a 45 day test on the "mall." Mill took pictures of the project and discussed it with many people.

In the plan, some downtown streets are closed to vehicle traffic and left exclusively to the pedestrians.

Trees, benches, kiddie rides, and even sidewalk cafes are included in the revolutionary plan. Naylor added his group is not for or against the plan at this date and will completely explore the idea before any action is taken. Merchants want to be "up to the minute" and will completely explore the idea before any action is taken.
